Hypoglycemia	When Cindy shows signs of hypoglycemia, she needs a drink of orange juice immediately. A drinking box is kept for her in the staff room fridge. Take her to a quiet place, and talk to her. Do not leave her alone. Call her mother immediately.

02/25/2006	Detention	Cindy's behaviour today was highly unusual. She was caught beating another girl in the yard with a stick, claiming that the other girl had insulted Cindy's parents. Her anger may have been provoked, but her response was unacceptable and she was given a detention over lunch.
General Notes

02/17/2005	Encouragement	Cindy is a very timid, quiet girl and needs a great amount of encouragement to complete her work. When motivated by encouragement, the results of her work reflect her effort.
